The Untold Side of Your Journey

Every journey carries a story that's rarely told. Unless you're with us.

Pahalgam, also known as the "Valley of Shepherds," has historically been a resting point for shepherds.

Srinagar's Dal Lake, though famously houseboat, is actually shrinking due to environmental pressures.

The floating vegetable gardens on Dal Lake are made from interwoven roots and vegetation, creating unsinkable plots.

Kashmir willow, used to make high-quality cricket bats, originates from trees grown extensively around Srinagar.
